

Trucking & Transportation Experts

SHANNON WHEELER

ABOUT SHANNON

General Counsel Shannon Wheeler joined Tenstreet in 2018. Prior to joining Tenstreet, Shannon spent a decade representing clients in litigation in both federal and state courts. She received her bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University and graduated with highest honors from the University of Tulsa College of Law. Shannon regularly provides education and industry compliance information to carriers and employers through webinars and speaking events. She has presented on nuanced compliance topics including the practical challenges of FMCSA regulations and the Fair Credit Reporting Act, steps to reduce the risks associated with nuclear verdicts, and managing the various state regulations that affect the owner-operator model.

PUBLICATIONS FEATURING SHANNON'S INSIGHTS

FreightWaves

Compliance Webinars

Women in Trucking

FleetOwner

“Many of our companies hire across multiple states and some within all 50 states. We build our products to ensure companies can be compliant in every state.”

-Shannon quoted in FreightWaves's article:

Automated compliance solutions help carriers navigate myriad of federal regulations, 12/16/19

Contact molly.vidler@tenstreet.com to connect with Shannon or any of our experts.