ABOUT TIM

Tim Crawford co-founded Tenstreet in 2006 to provide software solutions for the transportation industry and has served as CEO since 2016. Tenstreet serves thousands of fleets across the country and processes over 40% of employment verifications in the trucking industry overall. 80% of professional drivers have used the platform to apply, qualify, and onboard with fleets of all sizes. Prior to Tenstreet, Tim worked at a large background screening company in various technology and operations leadership roles and as a consultant for a public accounting firm.
